Wu & Associates Receives Diversity Excellence Award From Associated Builders and Contractors

Mt Laurel, NJ, March 7– Wu & Associates of Mt Laurel, NJ, announced today that it has been awarded a National Diversity Excellence Award from Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC). Dominick Mondì, President of ABC NJ accepted the award on March 1 at ABC’s 27th annual Excellence in Construction® Awards during the association’s Workforce Week ‘17 in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

“Associated Builders and Contractors is pleased to honor Wu & Associates for their commitment to processes that embrace diversity and inclusiveness in all aspects of their business,” said 2017 ABC National Chair Chuck Goodrich, president of Gaylor Electric Inc., Indianapolis. “Wu & Associates has created a competitive advantage by creating a framework that attracts and retains top talent from a wide variety of backgrounds into the construction industry. ABC looks forward to working with this year’s National Diversity Excellence Awards winners and its Diversity Resource Groups to continue to lead the industry forward in unlocking the full potential of every individual who chooses a career in construction.”

The ABC National Diversity Excellence Awards recognizes members that display exemplary diversity leadership in their workforce, supply chain and community with best-in-class recruitment policies, retention practices, and training and mentoring programs. Wu & Associates won in the Diversity category.

When asked about diversity, Wu & Associates responds with a strong statement that states, “Diversity is a key component of our success, and an inherent element of our staffing and supply chain. By capturing diversity in knowledge, education, and culture, we gain perspective to inform our continuous growth. Diversity brings innovation, and challenges complacency. It sharpens our competitive edge as a leader in our industry. “
